

THE SALVATION ARMY::: Fort Erie.

The Salvation Army started in town in 1940 under Adjutant A.H. Howells, but work was discontinued in 1944. In 1953 Envoy and Mrs. Rhys Fowler re-opened the work here, and met for a time at St. Pauls Hall. the meetings were later conducted in the Legion Hall, until a suitable place could be found..

In 1956 the Army bought the old Orange Lodge on the south side of Gilmore Rd., belonging to the United Church for $2,750.00. In 1957 the Army had a Sunday School enrolment of 60, pupils.

They have their own army band which for some time was under the leadership of Stanley Williams, formerly of Toronto.

in 1957 the Corps Sargeant was Clark Ferris : Treasurer Brandwell Spurrel: Secretary Erick Hancock: Home League Secretary Mrs. Clark Ferris: and the officers in charge: Envoy Rhys Fowler & Mrs. Fowler.