

GEORGE BLASDELL HONEY:::

born in Wellandport Jan. 29, 1898 son of George and Netta Blasdell Honey. His father was a member of the Clergy in the United Church. There were seven children in the family. He attended public school in ^bridgeburg and graduated at St. Catharines. In 1916 at 18 years he enlisted in the 201st. Battalion, and went to France in 1918. After returning he completed his education at St. Catharines, and started to read law in the office of Ingersoll, Kingston and Seymour in St. Catharines. He left the firm to attend Osgoode Hall in Toronto and was called to the bar in 1925. He returned as barrister to Fort Erie.