

SHOES H O E S

$2

SPENT AT OUR STORE WILL BUY MORE SOLID COMFORT AND REAL SATISFACTION THAN AT ANY OTHER STORE IN PORT COLBORNE.

THE NEW YORK
SHOE STORE.

HURRELL'S

STOCK OF

DRY GOODS

AND

BOOTS and SHOES

Are just a shade finer than ever offered before. The new dry goods are specially attractive—in fact, it goes without saying that Hurrell's dry goods are always right—right in it, in style and price.

A special effort has been made to please in the line of Teas. Try a sample.

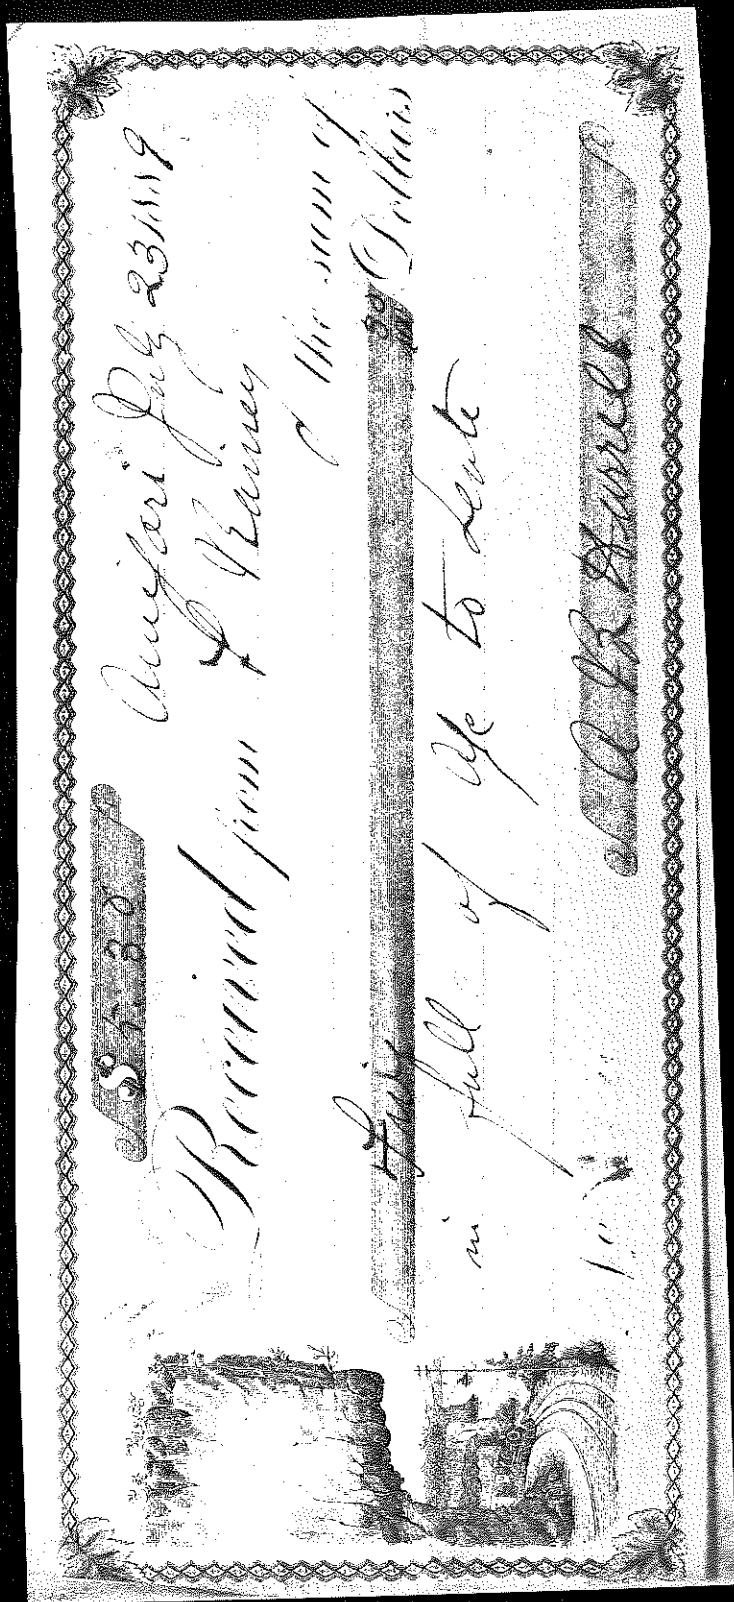

In ready-mixed paints, oils, etc., the stock is ready for the buyer. Inspection is asked.

If you've got the grip HURRELL'S is just the place to go to get it wiped out.

STORE—

AMIGARI—

DON'T FORGET IT.

A.B. HURREL::: 1850-

Mr. A.B. Hurrel was born in Devonshire England Oct. 11th., 1850. He came to Canada in 1854 with his parents John & Mary. He became a carpenter by trade, and worked on the building of the International Bridge. He was afterwards employed on the Ferry boat that ran between Fort Erie & Balck Rock. At the completion of the Bridge in 1873, he moved to Amigari, and was employed there at the Grand Trunk shops.

In June of 1883 he went into the mercantile business. He was also Deputy Postmaster, at his place of business.

In 1869 he had married Ellen Fields, by whom he had two children, Mary Louisa & Alfred. His wife died in 1875, and in Sept. of 1877, he remarried to Agnes Stygallo of Buffalo.

THE BRIDGEBURG REVIEW::: Oct. 12th, 1916.

A.B. MURREL DEAD

Mr. A.B. Murrel died at his late residence, Niagara street, Bridgeburg, after a lingering illness, Mon. He had been a resident of Bridgeburg for many years, having kept a General store in Amigari (south ward of Bridgeburg) up to four years ago last May, when he sold out to Mr. W.T. Malkin, owing to ill health. He then built a home on Dufferin St. where he resided until two years ago when he built a beautiful new home on Niagara St.

The late Mr. Murrel always took an active part in the welfare of Bridgeburg: he was twice Reeve when it was a village: also active on the board of trade and in any other capacity that he could serve the community. He was a man of good judgment and his opinions always carried weight, with the community at large. He was a Mason and Oddfellow, and in both these societies he had the respect of the brethren as evidenced by the high offices he filled. He was born in Devonshire England 66 years ago. He leaves a widow and one daughter Dr. M. Louise Murrell, Rochester N.Y., and one son Alfred of Glen Ridge N.Y., counsel for the Prudential Life.

Interment takes place this afternoon at St. Pauls Cemetery Fort Erie. The funeral will be in charge of the Palmer Lodge A.F. AND A.M. and members of International lodge I.O.O.F. will also attend in a body.

BRIDGEBURG BUSINESS MAN, WHOSE FUNERAL
TAKES PLACE TODAY

Alfred B. Hurrell.

BRIDGEBURG, Ont., Oct. 12—(Special).—The funeral of Alfred B. Hurrell was held this afternoon, with interment at St. Paul's Anglican cemetery. The Rev. A. Cameron Mackintosh officiated.

Mr. Hurrell died Monday. His wife and two children survive—Alfred Hurrell of Glen Ridge, N. J., a prominent lawyer, who has held several important positions at Albany, New York, and other places, and a daughter, Dr. Louise Hurrell of Rochester, N. Y.

The funeral services were conducted under the auspices of International I. O. O. F. lodge. Mr. Hurrell was also a member of Palmer Masonic lodge, having held high honors in that order.

He was one of the first to support the project of locating here a Y. M. C. A. branch, and was a charter director of that institution.

As reeve of Bridgeburg, Mr. Hurrell's sound business administration will be long remembered. He was a member of the council when a business man in the south ward, and brought, in addition to the town in general, many desired improvements to that locality.

Mr. Hurrell was one of the pillars of the local Anglican church, having been warden for a number of terms. He was in business in the Amigari

ALFRED HURRELL

On Oct. 9th. 1916 A.B. Hurrell died in Bridgeburg.
Wife Agnus Hurrell.
Children: Mr. M. Louise Hurrell N.Y. state and Alfred Hurrell N.Y. State.

IT IS NOT TOO LATE

—TO CALL FOR:—

Lawn Mowers,
Screen Doors,
Paints and Oils,
Glass and Putty,
Builders' Hardware,
Fence Wire,
Nails and Garden Tools.

THE PRICES COULD NOT BE LOWER.

—ALL—

Summer Dress Goods
REDUCED IN PRICE.

CROCKERY & CHINA, FRUIT JARS.
SUGAR—VERY CLOSE. TEA
& TEAS—OUR SPECIALTY.

The usual full stock of Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes,
School Books, Stationery, Patent Medicines, Flour & Feed, etc.

A. B. HURRELL
AMICARI.

The HURRELL Store stood on the Gilmore rd. on the N.W. corner of Dunlop St.; Building was burned several years later and a barn at the back became the store. The original store operated by Wm. Magwood was built in the early 1870's.

Add is from the Welland Tribune 1893.