

REBECCA MILLER::: dght. of Henry Miller & Elizabeth Boyer Miller:::

Rebecca Miller b. Mar. 15, 1824. d.

marr; Joseph Zavitz

bur:

Children of Jacob Zavitz and Rebecca (Miller) Zavitz.

Henry B. b.

marr;

bur:

Mary Ann b.

marr:

bur:

Melvi na b.

marr:

bur:

Benjamin b.

marr:

bur:

Lizzie b.

marr:

bur:

Emanuel b.

marr:

bur:

George b.

marr:

bur:

Ellen b.

marr:

bur:

Elihu b.

marr:

bur:

Ester b.

marr.

bur.

Zettie Miller

For some years, Miss Miller was a companion to a lady in Fort Erie.

Surviving is her foster son, Albert and his wife Candace Thwaites, their children Frank, Linda, Scott, Heather Thwaites; Andy, Gail, Joyce and Sharon Morellato, all of Niagara Falls. She was predeceased by one brother, Fermin Miller.

Cremation has taken place and her ashes were interred in the family plot at Drummond Hill Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

A memorial service was held in Chippawa Presbyterian Church Monday to honor Miss Zettie May Miller, a highly respected lifelong resident of the area. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. W. J. Clyde Ervine, minister of the church, and the senior choir provided special music.

Miss Miller of 10569 Niagara River Parkway, died at Greater Niagara General Hospital Nov. 15. The daughter of the late William and Priscilla Miller, she was born Dec. 10, 1885, and resided on the homestead property all her life.

Miss Miller was very active in the community and was the main founder of the Willoughby Historical Museum and saw her life's desire and dreams come true when it was organized. She was also a founder, charter member and honorary president of the Willoughby Historical Society and was still very active, rarely missing a meeting. She was also a charter member and honorary member of the Willoughby Women's Institute.

She was a lifelong member of the Chippawa Presbyterian Church and of the Women's Missionary Society of the church.

MILLER, Zettie May — Having given her 98 full years of life, God called Zettie May Miller home on November 15th, 1984. "Auntie" will be missed by her foster son Albert and his wife Candace Thwaites, and their children Frank, Linda, Scott and Heather Thwaites and Andy, Gail, Joyce and Sharon Morellato, all of Niagara Falls as well as many cousins and friends. Welcoming her home are her parents William and Priscilla Miller and her brother Fermin.

Cremation has taken place. A Service to honor her memory will be held at Chippawa Presbyterian Church on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. As an expression of sympathy, those who wish may make memorial donations to the charity of their choice. Arrangements have been made with the Morse and Son Chapel of the Morgan Funeral Homes.