

WILLOUGHBY EVANGELICAL UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH:::

The first services of the "Sauer Church" as it was then called , were held in the Adam Kabel bush; and a log church was built on the present location in 1834; and Henry Sauer who gave the land was the first licensed Preacher. There was a congregation of the same denomination in Chippewa. Christian Kaumeyer and Adam Herbold attenden there, however they often worshipped in the Sauer Church. Meetings were held in Pelham and Willoughby every two weeks, and in Willoughby and Chippewa the next week. This was known as the "Niagara Mission" first in the Canada Conference. The present Church of Brick was built in 1883 , and it became known as the Willoughby Evangelical United Brethren in 1946.
