

Lyon's Creek Cemetery ::: seven miles south west of Chippawa, to-day west of Queen E.

This very old cemetery stands just next to the Westlyon Methodist Church, now United on the old Indian trail in Crowland Township. Capt. Henry Buchner gave the land just adjacent to the old meeting house for this cemetery. His grave and that of his wife are among those sheltered under the huge oak tree that stands in the centre. Many of Crowlands earliest settlers and their descendants are buried in these grounds. Among these are the following names: Buchner:

Pinee: Everett: Dell: Mc. Arthur: Hutson: Pattison: Oliver: Ewers:
Mathew: Davis: Misener: Seger: Demare: Jewell: Dannels: Young:
Willson: Lamberton: Hurst Mc. Cain.
