JOHN DOUGLAS:::: FORT PRIE ONT. 1841- 1927

OBTTUARY:::

Fort Erie lost one of it's oldest and best known residents on Sat. last, in the person of Mr. John Pouglas, who fied at the home of his prother Dr. William Douglas. +he late Wr. Douglas was born in Fort Erie , and had kept in close touch with his native Village during his long life of eighty-six years. He was an extensive traveller, and had visited almost every part of the world. Following Graduation from Trinity College Toronto, with a degree of Bachelor of Arts, he studied Law; and for some time practised that profiession, both in Canada and the United States. Some years ago he retired from active life and returned home to live with his brother William. For months he had been in general poor health, and finally succumbed to a heavy cold. He was unmarried and leaves one brother.

The funeral took place Tues. afternoon at two o'clock, to St. Paul's Church and cemetery, Services were conducted by Pev. William Burt. The pallbearers were: V.F. Villson: A.T. Flliot: A.E. Seaton: Richard Graham: Henry Lewis: and F.L. Bamey.

Information from the Times Peview Pec. 1927.

Seven 10. 10