

O CANADA

In response to a number of inquiries, The Evening Review here reprints the version of O Canada commonly sung. The government proposes to adopt it as Canada's national anthem, with God Save The Queen as the royal anthem, but the government's proposed wording for O Canada has not been revealed.

O Canada! Our home and native land,
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North, strong and free;
And stand on guard, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
O Canada! Glorious and free,
We stand on guard, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada! We stand on guard for thee.

O Canada! Where pines and maples grow,
Great prairies spread and lordly rivers flow.
How dear to us thy vast domain,
From East to Western sea,
Thou land of hope for all who toil,
Thou True North, strong and free!
O Canada Glorious etc.

O Canada! Beneath thy shining skies,
May stalwart sons and gentle maidens rise;
To keep thee steadfast through the years
From East to Western sea,
Our Fatherland, our Motherland,
Our True North, strong and free!
O Canada! Glorious etc.
