

THE GOULDING FAMILY OF BERTIE TOWNSHIP,

WELLAND COUNTY, ONTARIO

George Goulding was baptised 6 December 1789 at Lazonby, Cumberland, England. He married Elizabeth Keay 14 August 1813 there. He died 10 September 1855 in Bertie township, Welland county, Ontario, Canada.

His parents were John Goulding and Mary Purdham (Purdom). They were married 20 September, 1789. His wife Elizabeth's parents were John Keay and Alice Scott, also of Lazonby.

George Goulding landed in Upper Canada with his family on 10 November 1844 according to a Bible record in the possession of (Ruth Goulding Learn) of Fort Erie. On the 13th of December, 1844 he purchased from Henry Taylor of Willoughby one hundred acres of land for one hundred and fifty pounds. This land is described as Lot # 4 in the 5th concession of Bertie township.

The 1851 census lists his household as follows: George (62), Elizabeth (59), Joseph (24), Jane (18), Anna (13), Alice Stamp (22), all born in England, and John Stamp (3), and Thomas Stamp (1), both born in Bertie township. Alice Stamp is his widowed daughter. His son William (28) is married to Abigail Benner and has established his own household.

It is not known if his eldest sons Nathan and George came to Canada or stayed in England. The third son Christopher may be the Kitt or Kip Goulding listed in St. Paul's burial records on April 14, 1882. Daughters Mary and Elizabeth were not located, although there is a connection between the Goulding and Keay families and the Edwin Townsend and Charles Cox families of Grand Island. Daughter Jane later married John Freebury and died in Buffalo, N.Y.
