

REHEARSING FOR CENTENNIAL PAGEANT

Everybody's in the swing for the Centennial Pageant, "By These Waters." The group rehearsing here is the dancers in the scene about the opening of the International Railroad Bridge between Buffalo and Fort Erie in the 1870's. The historical pageant, to be held at the Fort Erie Race Track, June 19 - 24, has something for everyone to enjoy. But, if you're the kind of person who isn't satisfied just sitting and watching, come and join in the fun. There's always room for more. Anybody interested in joining the show may do so by coming to rehearsals Wednesday or Thursday night this week at the High School old gymnasium at 8 p.m. The cast does no speaking or singing.
