Riceley, (Riselay), Christian, lot ten in the first, lot eight in the third, and lot eight in the fourth concession from Niagara River.

Late a private in Butler's Rangers. His petition, read 7th July, 1796, stated that he had received 250 acres, and prayed for fifty acres due him as a ranger and for family lands for his wife and two children. The Council recommended him for fifty acres military lands but ruled that he was not entitled to family lands. A second petition, read 17th March, 1797, prayed for family lands and for land for his wife as the daughter of a loyalist. He was recommended for 100 acres family lands, and his wife, Kitty Riceley, was recommended for a grant of 200 acres. He was a town warden in 1811 and 1821. His house was
